THINK ABOUT IT

1. Use a cause and effect graphic organizer to describe some of the milestones of the Civil Rights movement. Explain why the event happened (the cause) and what happened (the effect).

Cause	Effect

2. Why do you think Martin Luther King, Jr. was able to accomplish so much during his brief career? Use evidence from the book to support your answer.

CITIZENSHIP IN ACTION

More than 50 years after his death, the words and actions of Dr. King continue to inspire people around the world. He faced many obstacles yet continued to stand up for what he believed in.

Your Turn!

Think of what you could do to keep Dr. King's legacy alive. Could your classmates help you make it happen? Could community leaders help you out? What actions could you take to start your own movement?
